OBJECTIVES

"Sustainability" and "Digitalization" are two critical dimensions of today's world that will decide much about the future course of action for the whole humanity. This has led us to the theme of the international conference i.e. Sustainability and Digitalization. It is an enthusiastic attempt to inspire, encourage and support the scholars belonging to diverse fields to present and share their research work with the academic and marketing fraternity. The research works presented in the conference are expected to enlighten the stakeholders with various findings related to the field of sustainability and digital transformations. The participants will be able to get acquainted with existing and potential sustainable business practices across the industries along with potential status of Digital India, related challenges and sustainable solutions. The forum will facilitate interaction among stakeholders inside and outside their respective disciplines to enjoy the fellowship of other professionals and scholars in the field.
